To Reverend Flight Lieutenant Michael Loach

Hello Mike,

I spoke briefly to you after yesterday's service at Nettleham.

I wanted to let you know that I recorded, by video, the wreath laying service at the cemetery yesterday (please find link to the video on my private YouTube Channel).

I maintain and edit the church website at All Saints and was wondering if you would be happy for this video to be used on a page about yesterday's service? Don't worry if this is a negative as I understand you may feel it is not appropriate to put this on the website. I obviously wanted to ask for permission to use it though. I also understand if you need to seek permission from the military authorities beforehand.

Currently the web page is unpublished, and the video is unlisted on my YouTube channel so only those with whom I have shared a link with can see it.

Kind regards & blessings

Chris Malone

Hi Chris,

Regarding YouTube, I've made a few enquiries and there is no objection at our end to it being posted.

All good wishes,

Mike
